John Vanderkooy and Stan Lipshitz are back once again to give us a review of the papers presented at this year's AES convention in San Francisco and in Paris. For those who couldn't attend the conventions, this is an excellent opportunity to get an overview of the papers presented in an informative and digestible format.

Various Workshop, Tutorials and Master class reviews from San Francisco will be provided by Jim Hayward, Ron Lynch, and Sy Potma.

UPCOMING MEETINGS

November 14 Joint SMPTE/AES, Ryerson University RCC-359 A & B Russell Waite, Euphonix will discuss their MC Controller w/ Eucon Hybrid bringing control capabilities of the console beyond the dedicated DSP Cores to the outside world, bringing Digital Audio Workstation (DAW) tracks onto the console surface for mixing. Luc Bourgeois, Digidesign will speak on the advancements in version 7.2 ProTools Audio production software. He will particularly highlight the improvements relating to audio for video production made in this most recent version.

November 28 Audio Precision, Ryerson University, RCC-359 A & B Engineers from Audio Precision will be on hand to talk about the new APx585 multi-channel analyzer.

December 12 TBA Theresa Leonard, past-President of AES, and Director of Audio, Banff Centre will talk about her perspectives on the AES as an international organization.
